

PRIVACY CAUTION
TO AREA EDUCATION AGENCY AND RESIDENT PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT

FROM A PARENT WHOSE STUDENT UNDER PRIVATE INSTRUCTION IS NOT DUAL ENROLLED OR ENROLLED IN A HOME SCHOOL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

This courtesy notice is provided to alert you to recognize that, under Iowa Code Section 299A.11, all information collected, obtained, maintained, created, and/or assembled by area education agencies and/or public school districts concerning non-enrolled students under Competent Private Instruction (including information on CPI Form A) and concerning students under Independent Private Instruction is confidential –
even if a parent, guardian, or legal or actual custodian does not provide a courtesy notice to the agency or school district.

You may be accustomed, pursuant to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act [FERPA] and No Child Left Behind (20 USC 7908), to releasing student information to the public, or college or military recruiters, if parents fail to send a written request asking you to withhold the information.
However, under Iowa Code section 299A.11, confidentiality must be protected for CPI and IPI students who are not dual-enrolled or HSAP-enrolled, even if the parents never make a written request to withhold information, and even if they do not reply to standard correspondence the agency or school district sends them.
