Advance teacher training may be provided via Zoom or Google Meet ahead of the conference.

Due to the nature of the world we live in, those who refuse to comply will not be allowed to participate as volunteers.

TEAMS & PROTOCOLS

TEAM ROLES

Our 2023 KIDS TREK format will be as follows:

Teachers and children will be assigned to a team with a designated classroom, but will join with other teams for drama presentations and activities.

Teachers will be working in groups and should come prepared to fully engage as a team during the entire conference.

During our advance online training, we will cover expected teacher roles and classroom guidelines.

Teachers will each be expected to teach at least one lesson during KIDS TREK, as well as review lessons and ask insightful questions to help engage students and to help them retain what they are hearing.

Teachers are asked to keep their classrooms tidy and to encourage the children in their teams to do the same.

Every teacher is expected to set a good example for all others, demonstrating a positive attitude, initiative, and dedicated teamwork at all times throughout the program.

DRAMA TEAM

Every year we produce the highlight of each year's program: an 8-part drama.

The storyline of the drama directly connects with the lessons being taught, so that both the Gospel and Christian character lessons are taught throughout the program

Dress Code & Conduct

- Be neatly groomed in body and clothing. No gaudy or outlandish hairstyles or jewelry. (This applies to Thursday set-up hours as well.)
- Wear 2023 conference t-shirts on Friday and Saturday. Refrain from making embellishments or modifications (i.e. rolled sleeves, pins, etc.).
- Plan ahead in case the facility is chilly. Sweatshirts and jackets are not allowed over the conference t-shirts. You may wear a long-sleeved shirt under your conference t-shirt, if needed.
- Keep name tags visible around the neck at all times. Do not trade name tags with others.
- Wear modest denim jeans (no holes) or solid-color pants appropriate for movement and activity. Skirts that fall below the knee (not tight-fitting and without revealing slits) are allowed, however, ladies should keep in mind what would be modest for sitting on the floor or playing games with children.
- Consider comfortable shoes a MUST.
- Adjust to a more relaxed dress code for Thursday: modest jeans, capris, or Bermuda shorts and loose-fitting shirts. Some returning volunteers wear a previous year's conference t-shirt.
- Expect to keep busy and help as needed. If a volunteer does not comply with this protocol, he/she will be asked to leave the conference.
- Plan to stay at least 1/2 hour after the end of the last Saturday session to assist with tear-down.
- Be prepared for a three long days of fast-paced, intensive work – and lots of fun!
