

From Games to Reading! by Cathy Angel

8:00 – 9:00 Saturday morning –Community Room A/B

Change your laborious reading instruction into a class that both you and your child will look forward to every day! Find out how easy it is to make reading time engaging and fun!

- I. Come join us if you:
 - a. Want to make your reading instruction more fun
 - b. Need something to lure a reluctant participant
 - c. Would like children with two or more different reading levels to work together
 - d. Want something your child will do without complaining
 - e. Would like to move your children to be more successful when reading and spelling
 - f. Want some fun ways to practice skills

- II. We will share games that will help your child learn letter names

- III. We will demonstrate games that will help your child learn letter sounds

- IV. We will share games that engage your child while practicing reading application

- V. We will demonstrate games that engage your child while practicing writing/spelling application

- VI. We will show you how to make your child's reading instruction more enjoyable!