Secrets for Mom Success

Thank you, Kerry, for taking the time to put together valuable training material on leadership education. I have been homeschooling 6 years and as far as I can see, there is little-to-nothing available in this area of education that has any practical application for homechooling parents to use in the mentoring of their children in critical thinking skills.

*I felt like a lone horse on a deserted trail. Everyone else that I know that home schools is on the conveyor belt to keep up with the public education counterpart. Thank you, Kerry, for being a "voice in the desert" that will give guidance to us "many lone horses" that are headed your way. - Cherie

*I believe one of the most important lessons we teach our kids, alongside the "how to think" and the godly character, is being willing to do things differently--even from others who are doing things differently--to hear His voice and follow your specific calling/passion despite the possibility of failure or ridicule.

No true leader makes changes in his world without that willingness and courage. Your materials will enable many more to put feet to the raising of leaders. ~ Lynn
